

What does "justice for all" mean to you?

A creative challenge to tweens in grades 6-8

Students in grades 6-8 throughout Santa Clara County are invited to think about this year's Silicon Valley Reads theme "... and justice for all" and put their creative talents to work to explain what these powerful words mean to them. Creative categories include:

- Poetry (any style including free verse, rap, song, acrostic, etc.)
- Essay/Written Speech
- Narrative (non-poetry)
- Visual (any style including graphic image, poster, cartoon, etc.)

One student in each category will be randomly selected to receive a $25 Amazon gift card. Some entries will be posted on the Silicon Valley Reads website and displayed in local public libraries and the Santa Clara County Office of Education Learning Multimedia Center. Identification of participants will include first name only, grade, and school.

Each entry must fit on one side of an 8.5x11 sheet and be stapled to this entry sheet. More copies of this entry sheet can be downloaded from the Silicon Valley Reads website, SiliconValleyReads.org. Entries can be submitted at any of the participating libraries or sent through your school to the Santa Clara County Office of Education Learning Multimedia Center. You may also send entries via email to SVReads@aol.com. Deadline for entries is March 15 and winners will be announced by March 24.
